Advertising is alive at corporate golf days

Promotion on clothing is an effective, reliable and inexpensive way to advertise your brand. Our golf polo shirts provide a canvas for your corporate colours to shine. Meanwhile keen golfers stay comfortable in first-class apparel as they swing their way around the course. Designed with the prestige of golf in mind these polo shirts have features that golfers will truly appreciate.

If you're planning a corporate golf day, choose one of our golf polos as your promotional billboard. Classy shirts your clients will love and continue wear after the golf day ends. Go to town and discuss a full design service with us or check out our huge range of online designs.
